

Cooperating Raleigh Colleges Library Workshop

Thursday, July 12, 2012

William Peace University

“Inform Yourself--The New ABCs for Libraries: Assessment...Basics...Creativity”

8:30-9 a.m. – Registration and morning coffee

Welcome from William Peace University

9-9:40 a.m. -- "Bricks from Clay - a Consortial View of Use and Value" by NC Live Executive Director Tim Rogers

9:45-10:45 a.m. – “Visual Surveys: Learning about Student Needs in Unique Ways.”
NCSU Libraries’ photo diary project presented by Karen DeWitt and Meredith’s drawing project presented by Ted Waller

10:45-11 a.m. Break Come create your own READ poster. Bring your favorite book and be photographed at the workshop. You’ll be able to choose a READ poster background, and the edited image will be sent to you later.

11-11:50 a.m. –“Understanding the Relationship between Libraries and Social Media.”
Karyn Thomas, Raleigh Television Network

Noon-1 p.m. – Lunch Meet and learn from your colleagues by sitting with people in your own cohort group from other libraries

1-1:30 p.m. –"The Looming A Word—Assessment in Libraries" Overview by Laura Davidson from Meredith.

1:30-2:45 p.m.—Break into cohort groups to discuss assessment. See sign-up sheets for the groups.

2:45-3 p.m. Break Create your own READ poster.

3-4 p.m. –“Now What? Take-Aways from Today and Past Experiences and How To Keep Learning” A panel of representatives from each campus will discuss the day’s events and how to go forward from what we’ve learned and considered.

Please complete the pink post-assessment sheet in your folder and leave it for us.

Thank you from your workshop planning committee: Nate Hellmers (William Peace); Carrie Nichols (Meredith), Jennifer Townes and Clevell Roseboro (Saint Augustine’s); Musette McKelvey (Shaw); Karen DeWitt (NC State); Jenny Spiker (CRC)