

2010-12: New leaders at CRC colleges and universities

All five members of Cooperating Raleigh Colleges have introduced new people at the top or in other key leadership roles in the last several years. That includes a new president at Meredith College, a new chancellor and provost at NC State University, a new president at Peace College, an interim president at Shaw University, and a new provost at Saint Augustine's College.

Read about their backgrounds and their plans for leading these important institutions in the Raleigh community.

Links to more information on their own websites

Learn about new Meredith College President Jo Allen

<http://www.meredith.edu/president/>

Learn about Peace College President Debra Townsley

<http://www.peace.edu/content/page/id/1108>

Learn about NC State University Chancellor Randy Woodson

<http://www.ncsu.edu/about-nc-state/chancellor/index.php>

Learn about NC State University Provost Warwick Arden

<http://www.provost.ncsu.edu/>

Saint Augustine's College President Dianne B. Suber in her 11th year. Learn more:

<http://www.st-aug.edu/presidentsbio-196.html>

Learn about Saint Augustine's College's Provost Connie Allen

<http://crraleighcolleges.org/about/>

Learn about the interim president at Shaw University, Dr. Dorothy Cowser Yancy

http://www.shawu.edu/News_and_Events.aspx?id=2990